Castro Valley Democratic Club Newsletter – 9/10

Endorsements Our next meeting will be Sept. 28th at 7pm at the Faith Lutheran Church, 20080 Redwood Rd., in C.V. We meet in the Graydon Meeting Room. This will be our endorsement meeting where we will have several candidates speaking and will also go over the initiatives. It is a lot to go over and we will want to start promptly at 7 pm. We will have light refreshments and meet at 6:30, then get right to the meeting.

Volunteer Options-Election 2010 – Our local Democratic Party Headquarters is located at 15069 E. 14th St., Suite B, in San Leandro across from Bay Fair Mall. Hours: M-F noon-8:30 pm, Sat. 10am-5pm, Sun noon-6pm. They have asked our club to staff the phone bank on Wed. Oct. 6th from 5:30-8:00. They can accommodate 8 people, more if we bring cell phones and chargers. This should be a fun way to make a difference in the election.

MoveOn- MoveOn.org has switched into campaign mode. The new effort is called “Stop the Takeover”, which means stop the corporate backed Republican takeover of our democracy. They have two programs, one where they will be calling other MoveOn members and asking them to volunteer for the progressive candidate in key races (like Boxer vs. Fiorina). and the second program where they “ Bird-Dog “ the Republican candidate at events. This can really be a fun way to expose the Republican candidates for the Corporate Greedsters they are. If you are interested in working on either of these projects, ask Sonya, Mary Swain, Pat Marchant, or Frank Burton . You can get info. at the MoveOn website : www.moveon.org.

Voter registration- We will be having a voter registration booth at the Castro Valley Farmers Market on 3 Saturdays in October., Oct. 2nd, 9th, and 16th. The deadline for registration to vote in the November election is October 18th so this will be a prime time for registering Democrats! This is a fun way to meet your fellow Club members. We will have a sign-up sheet at the meeting on Sept. 28th or you can call Saundra.

Many thanks to the wonderful volunteers who covered our club booth at the Fall Festival! You rock!! :^)
