President’s Message January 2012

Greetings Democrats!

There they are, the Republicans jumping from one “Not Romney Candidate” to the next. What could be really exciting, though, is what may happen to these leader-dependant voters. As each candidate implodes we should watch the voter’s mental state knowing that studies show Conservatives feel deeply dedicated to their leaders, and really need to follow someone. I can’t predict exactly how they will react, but it may just be the best time ever to try reasoning with your conservative uncle Billy Bob, and Aunty Mary Jo. I don’t, however, think you should talk just yet with your friends who are dedicated Libertarians, they are riding high.

This Month

If all goes well and the Nominating Committee is ready, we will start our meeting with our Executive Board Election. Our guest speaker, Nate Miley is scheduled for 8:00. Our next meeting is Tues. Jan 24th and will begin promptly at 7pm.

Nate Miley is seeking reelection, and has budgetary issues from all the cut backs and Republican ruined economy. Nate will be discussing issues relating to the district and the local economy. Nate is the closest thing we have to a Mayor and is always a great speaker.

Hope to see you all there

Karl Hodges
